Note from Compliance

We had many trees come down in the community thanks to Irma. As you continue to clean-up your property after Irma, please remember to include having stumps removed.

It's that time of the year again to perform routine outdoor maintenance such as mulching, cleaning sidewalks, roofs and driveways, and trimming low hanging tree branches over sidewalks, streets and streetlights. Please complete this maintenance as we have started the compliance reviews, and will begin sending letters for non-compliance.

Reminder

Children under the age of 16 are not to be driving golf carts in the Community. There have been some youngsters driving around - actually swerving/ fooling around. Also children are not to be standing up on the back of golf carts where golf clubs usually go. It's very dangerous and they can get hurt. Let's keep these safety rules in mind.

Thursday night euchre resumed at 7 PM, January 4 in the Community Center .

Welcome back to all the players.

Lee County Sheriff Fraud Alert

An invitation to earn a living while shopping sounds very enticing, doesn't it? Unfortunately, this old scam has resurfaced just in time for the holiday season causing some residents to reach out to the Sheriff's Office fraud line to report the mystery con job.

While it is true that some retailers hire companies to evaluate the quality of service in their stores utilizing a legitimate "mystery shopper", there are red flags you need to be aware of should you choose to do a little retail therapy.

One caller reported to the fraud line that a con artist contacted her immediately after she applied for a job online via an employment-related search engine. She then began receiving text messages regarding her first assignment, followed by a package that arrived to her home containing a cashier's check and instructions to deposit the check and wire transfer money as part of her mystery-shopping job. This request raised a red flag, and fortunately for our caller, she immediately realized this was an attempt to scam her.

Fraud Alert Continued

Here is what you should know about becoming a mystery shopper. It does not cost anything. In fact, you can search a database of shopping assignments through a legitimate secret shopper company by visiting the Mystery Shopping Providers Association (MSPA) at mysteryshop.org.

You can avoid becoming a victim by never doing business with someone who:

- Requires you pay a certification fee
- Charges a fee for access to mystery shopping opportunities
- Asks you to deposit a check and wire some or all of the money as part of your duties
- Isn't part of the MSPA

For more information about the Mystery Shopper scam, or to report a fraud, scam or identity theft, contact the sheriff's office fraud line at 258-3292 or fraudline@sheriffleefl.org.

A thank you to all who donated to the guards this year. You helped to make the holiday season special for them!
